CONSENT FORM AND LEGAL DISCLAIMER

It is understood that the Second Chance Prom (Prom) is being offered to youth participants who are attending on a voluntary basis. The Prom is to take place at the Bancorp South Arena in Tupelo, MS. Bus transportation has been arranged for some attendees. While on the bus ride to the Prom passengers are expected to act civilly to one another and to refrain from any type of violent, bullying or antagonistic behavior. Any deviation from this code of conduct will result in that passenger being advised of the problem and could result in being denied entrance to the Prom or being asked to leave the event. Passengers are expected to treat each other with respect and to act at all times in a peaceful manner. While the event encourages the expression of views and interests, it is important that each and every passenger on the bus treat others and their property with the utmost respect and polite attitude.

The sponsors of the bus transportation and Prom are in no way undertaking any responsibility for or liability for the loss of property, damage to property, injury to any participants or staff or any other possible eventualities that cannot be presupposed at this time.

By accepting transportation to the Second Chance Prom, it is understood that all participants, guardians and attendees have been advised of these rules and release of liability and that they will adhere to the aforementioned code of conduct.

By signing this agreement you, for yourself or on behalf of your minor child, release the transportation and Prom sponsors from liability for any loss of property, damage to property, injury to any participants or staff or any other possible eventualities that cannot be presupposed at this time.
